

Application for MVAA Summer Internship Program with The Art Place – Mt. View

3330 Sandy Plains Rd. Marietta, GA. 30066

Due by Monday, April 22, 2019

The Art Place is a Cobb County PARKS facility offering classes for all ages, a Black Box Theater, and gallery space. In the summer, TAP offers summer camps for ages 4-19. Mountain View Arts Alliance the non-profit support group for fund-raising, programming and facility input to the staff of The Art Place. During the summer, MVAA produces various theater camps for TAP, plus offers various programming including the Summer Stars Concert Series.

The MVAA Intern completes various program and administrative duties at TAP.

Camp Assistance

Interns are primarily support for MVAA summer theater camps, including Cabaret Camp, My First Theater Camp, and Creative Dramatics camp. Interns gain classroom and instruction experience by leading theater games, helping students rehearse scripts and choreography, and helping to teach basic stage concepts. Interns must be available for our Cabaret Camp performance dates, June 21 and 23, 2019.

When there is no theater camp, interns help in The Art Place's visual arts camps. Interns prepare classrooms for use, assist in classroom instruction, help design projects, and more.

Administrative Assistance

Interns may also provide administrative assistance for The Art Place staff, including camp paperwork processing, answering phones, and interacting with the public.
